Section A: Reference Websites

http://www.curriculumonline.ie/

At this NCCA-hosted website, you can view the curriculum specifications, examples of student work, and a variety of assessment support options.

http://www.jct.ie/

The JCT website provides details of CPD opportunities to support schools and teachers in the context of the Framework for Junior Cycle 2015. It includes information, relevant resources and materials and details of upcoming events.

http://www.ncca.ie/

The NCCA website contains detail of key features of the new junior cycle; newly developed subjects and short courses, a focus on literacy, numeracy and the Key Skills, and new approaches to assessment and reporting.

Section B: CSPE within the Framework for Junior Cycle

Junior Cycle Education places students at the centre of the educational experience, enabling them to actively participate in their communities and in society, and to be resourceful and confident learners in all aspects and stages of their lives. Junior Cycle is inclusive of all students and contributes to equality of opportunity, participation and outcome for all.

Wellbeing at Junior Cycle provides learning opportunities to enhance the physical, mental, emotional and social wellbeing and resilience of students, and enables them to build life-skills and to develop a strong sense of connectedness to their school and to their community. It will also emphasise the role that students play in their family, community and society in general. This new area of learning will incorporate learning traditionally included in PE, SPHE and CSPE. A school may also choose to include other areas in their provision for Wellbeing.

Civic Social and Political Education (CSPE) helps students to question, critique and evaluate what is happening in the world; provides students with an understanding of their human rights and social responsibilities; prompts students to consider how to create a more sustainable future for all; fosters an awareness of what it means to live responsibly in a democracy; and most importantly, it places active reflective citizenship at the centre of the learning process by providing students with the opportunity to take action and influence change around local, national and global issues. (CSPE Short Course Specification 2016, pg. 4)

Curricular options for CSPE within Wellbeing (DES Circular Letter 0079/2018) Students must study CSPE. Options include:

- the junior cycle syllabus in CSPE (1996) or
- the specification for the Junior Cycle short course in CSPE (2016)

Section C: The Statements of Learning that appear in the CSPE Short Course Specification

The student:

- -values what it means to be an active citizen, with rights and responsibilities in local and wider contexts (7)
- -understands the origins and impacts of social, economic, and environmental aspects of the world around her/him (9)
- -has the awareness, knowledge, skills, values and motivation to live sustainably (10)
- -takes action to safeguard and promote her/his wellbeing and that of others (11)
